She did not present it to me like she wasn't; she mentioned it in her Yearly Questionaire. So, I was not aware that she is already registered and was just wanting to see if you/we could make it happen for her. That's my bad. ☺

She already told me this and she was registered in the class months ago. Not sure why she presented it to you like she wasnt.

Brandy has expressed an interest in becoming a TLO. I see there is a class in Bakersfield in May (I also see there is a waiting list) . Is this something we can work on for her? Also, what bout us attending and updated class ?
